

AWT Young Professionals Webinar: Legionella: The Importance & Fundamentals YPs Should Know

Be honest YPs - you've likely seen the headlines regarding Legionella pneumophila, and probably have heard about some of the regulations that have been implemented in response to disease outbreaks... and it all probably has you scared to pieces about proper prevention, right? Have no fear and don't be scared though! We invite you to join Bill Pearson, of BPearson Consulting, as he explains the fundamentals you need to know as a YP with regard to Legionella and the systems you treat. You'll feel a lot more confident and at ease regarding Legionella and all that it entails after you spend some time with one of the industry's experts on the matter, we promise!
