

AWT Young Professionals Webinar: Matching Your Water Treatment Program to Your Customer's Equipment Selection

Join us for a webinar with Brett Alexander, Dustin Cohick, and Mihir Kalyani, EVAPCO Inc., that will provide attendees with a better understanding of differences between Open Cooling Towers, Closed Circuit Coolers, Evaporative Condensers, Hybrid Systems, Adiabatic Coolers and Dry Coolers. These young professionals will discuss how equipment design and materials of construction might impact the selection and implementation of your water treatment program. The webinar will also discuss information related to commissioning new systems and surveying existing ones.
